Ever since I was three years old I have been dancing. I love music and the way it Makes me feel. I always imagined I would grow up and be a performer like Jennifer Lopez and Shakira. I got distracted in college and when I started my full-time job and when I started my full-time job and to train my brain and my body to keep up with choreography. It quit and started to pursue dancing. I started taking it seriously about two years ago and I have been training ever since working towards my goal of being on stage and fulfilling my dream to be a performer. I love to share great feelings with people and DNCE makes me feel amazing and I know it makes other people feel great too. Dance is the only way I can express myself and if I can do it professionally and for a living it would be amazing and that is my goal. is the only way I can express myself longer as afraid to perform and this and if I can do it professionally and for a living it would be amazing on stage at the annual showcase for and that is my goal. My challenges have been that it is a lot harder than I thought to start at my age, entails a lot more conditioning and strength than I could have ever imagined. I never thought about and strength than I could have ever imagined. I never thought about how my memory and my brains speed would come into play for They are an amazing team who dance as well. I never thought that really care about dancers in the my back muscles will need to be industry and they unlock your strong and working towards having my body and brain stronger has been a challenge. In one year and a half I went from a beginner he was very shy to an intermediate level dancer who is no longer as afraid to perform and this has been amazing. in one year and a half I went from has been amazing. I have performed the dance studio where I train and it was a great moment

Achievements: Showstopper dance studio has trained me to be a better person, a more free version of potential. They have one location in Miami Florida at the moment and they have grown a lot in the year that I have been here as well as the owner does choreography for various Award shows like the Premios Lo Nuestro as well as choreography for various artists.

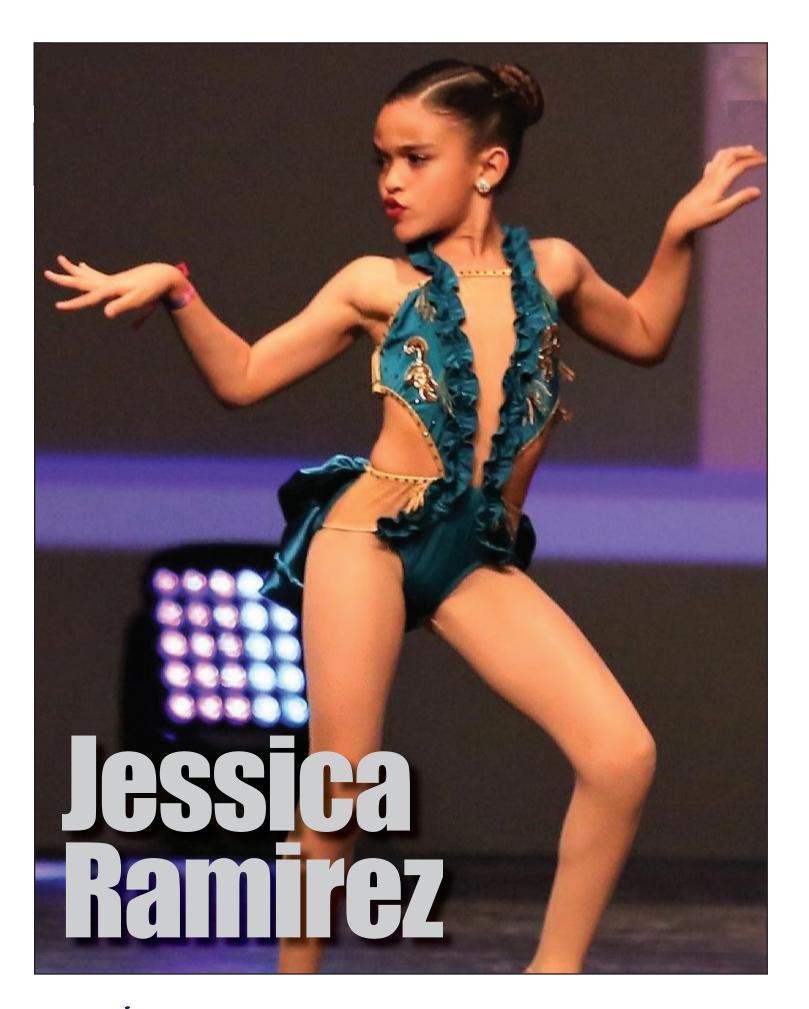

Goals

- continue to push to become a better dancer. Work daily on my technique and flexibility.
 to become a better dancer each
- and every day.
- become a working professional Recipient dancer.
- open a dance studio.

Challenges

- biggest challenger has been my flexibility. I am not naturally flexible. But I take stretching classes and go to Yamil from iMassageandStretch in Miami, Fl. I also stretch every night before I go to bed.

Bella is 10 years old.
A Principal Honor Roll student.
Began dancing at 2 years old. Has been a competitive dancer for 4 years.

- I feel like my height might be a challenge. I am the shortest on my dance team and I have to work hard to strengthen my legs to be able to jump and leap higher.
