Aleah Grayce Gibbs

Hi my name is AleahGrayce Gibbs! I am a 14 year old dancer from Florida. My dream is to perform on Broadway. I dance for Stars Dance Company in Miami. The teachers there are phenomenal and I love their choreography. Dance is my first love but I also enjoy singing and acting. I have done Dinner Theater shows and a number of commercials. One of my greatest accomplishments was my first broadway audition last year right before the pandemic broke out. I started out as a competitive gymnast when I was younger, therefore, I still love to tumble and go to the gym. My Tumbling Coach (Coach Deon) is amazing and he comes up with new acro skills for my routines. My biggest challenge is scoliosis. I was diagnosed 18 months ago. A dance teacher actually discovered it in a ballet class. While scoliosis helps me with some things in dance, it makes other things very difficult. I have to work extra hard on my alignment and not working one side too much. I also manage the pain with physical therapy as needed. I have faith that the curve won't get worse and I will be able to continue to do everything I love to do. Dance is in my soul and I can't imagine a day without it Alexia is a 12 yr old dancer born in New York City. She has been dancing since the age of 3. She currently resides in Redwood City, Ca and trains at Melodic Remedy Dance Studio in San Carlos, Ca. Alexia does regional dance competitions. Some of her favorite styles are Lyrical, Tap, Jazz, Ballet and Musical Theatre. She aspires to become a professional dancer on Broadway one day.

In five years, where do I see myself? After high school, what do I want for me and my life? My name is Samantha Cornut and I will tell you what my aspirations are. My goals are to get into my dream college, UNC Charlotte and study nursing to become a Registered nurse, while I dance and do some musicals or plays. After college, I would like to go to medical school and become a pediatric surgeon for a living because I am very curious about how things work and I grew up watching lots of Grey's Anatomy, which intrigued me every episode. My achievements are being a high honor roll student every year in middle school, being an honor roll student every high school marking period, being a crucial member of the Masuk High School Dance Team, being Mamma Mia! and a current spring musical, Meet Me in St. Louis. In addition, I am a part of Masuk High School Peer Leadership Team, which focuses on school bullying issues and problems with students at school, being a competition dancer for four years, and being a dancer with many styles of dance like modern, tap, ballet, jazz and contemporary for 13 years.

However, there are challenges while balancing dance team, school, dance every day of the week, the musical, and Peer Leadership Team like time management. Time management is manageable, no pun intended, but you have to plan accordingly. For example, I am a sophomore in high school, so my homework load is not piled right now, but I will be a junior next year, so it will definitely be loaded. I have success in this category. For example, I have block scheduling in school due to covid, so I have periods 1-4 two days this week and periods 5-8 the other three days. My teachers see me every other day. During the week, I manage to complete the more difficult work done before the easier work before that class that day. So, this week I started Monday with Biology, World Literature, Geometry, and Contemporary World Issues. At the end of the day, I had to finish a biology worksheet and a sine and cosine packet for geometry. The first thing I did was do my math because in my opinion, math takes longer and is more difficult to understand. Then, I did my biology worksheet because in that class, we were learning a subject that was easier to understand. After that, I check to make sure I am not missing any important school work assignments.

I aspire to be the best version of myself that I can be. I am aiming to get more A's and become a straight A student next year, so I get accepted into my dream school. Also, I am definitely one to work myself up over very little things. Once, I got below a B, which in my household is not acceptable, and I talked with my teacher to figure out what I could improve on. I aspire me and everyone around me to do the best they can on everything! You too can aspire to be the best version of yourself you can be. My advice: work hard, never give up, and lastly, believe in yourself because it is possible.

My future goal is to become a professional dancer! I love dancing, it makes me so happy! I am so hard working and hope my dreams come true! I always give my best. I am dedicated and determined to succeed. As a dancer I want to accomplish many things. I want to dance on TV, perform on stage, on Broadway and the West End. I just want to do what I love most...dance! My plan is to study Musical Theatre. I LOVE performing on stage! In 2018 I was given the chance to be in pantomime! It was the best couple of months of my life! It was an amazing experience and I had an amazing time meeting new dancers and choreographers and even actors and singers!!

Ana karla Rochart

When I dance I feel great. I would love to be a professional dancer. I am in the first grade at the ballet school in Havana, Cuba.

Ballet makes me discover part of my body every day, its language helps me to project my feelings. Its elegance delights me.

I feel a special connection with modern dance, I perceive everyday life through it. When I see Carlos Acosta dancing Romero it is like a dream, but the expressions of him in modern dance I can see and feel that I am there, in that moment.

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, I take the lessons online, which means less contact with my teachers and peers, so at first, measuring progress was a bit difficult to adapt to this new way of learning.

When I was 5 years old, I started training for the ballet school exam. I consider it a privilege to be a student at the ballet school in Havana.

Arianna Goarley

Arianna is a competitive dancer and performer from Ontario, Canada represented by Fountainhead Talent Agency. For the last three competitive seasons her team has been top scorers and have overalled at both Regional and Nationals levels from small groups to productions. Brynlee is blessed with dance friends and family that love to dance as much as she does. The last two years she has added being a soloist to her agenda. She performs in the open category which comes with acrobatics/tumbling along with her choreography. She absolutely loves this style of dance because she can include her love for tumbling as well. She has the best of both of her worlds together wrapped up in a sweet package and she loves to compete. This style of dance has lots of hold your breath moments for this tiny dancer of eight years old. She is a studio owners' daughter which comes with perks as well as obstacles. It's not easy being Miss Brynlee...the studio and gym are her home away from home. While some may think it's easier for her in reality it's much more difficult, because she shares her mom, Aunt and Nana with 250 other dancers. She is pushed harder than most, this little lady has proven time after time, she has what it takes to be a true performer. Brynlee is fearless to say the least, and has the determination, as well as mind set to reach for the stars. Her dreams are to dance forever. At eight years old she may not be sure what the future will hold for her. Will she be a famous dancer or follow her family dreams and someday own the Studio she calls home.

My name is Dana-Ève Lauzier, I am 11 years old and I live in Quebec City, Canada. I speak French and I do well in English! I started dancing at the age of 3 and started competing at the age of 7 in the city where I was born. I moved from my hometown at 9 years old to come and live in Quebec only to continue my dance development in a higher caliber dance school. Since then, I have evolved a lot. I won several prizes in dance competitions and participated in several dance photoshoots. I also took part in a fairly well-known television show in Quebec. It was a competition where I presented, live on television, one of my solos. Recently, I was accepted to "L'École Supérieure de Ballet du Québec", the only French-speaking institution in North America leading to a professional career in classical ballet.

Dancing is just a part of me. This is my passion! I work extremely hard to make all my dreams come true in connection with my passion, dance!

Elsie Bayton

Elsie is an aspiring dancer from Cornwall, England. She has been dancing since the age of 7 with Scruffy Mutt Dance Company, where she has competed nationally and internationally as an elite soloist and also as a group team competitor.

At the age of 8 she performed her first ever solo contemporary piece at Dynamite Dance, where she placed 3rd in a very tough and talented category, which also meant she had qualified for the finals in London later that year. Elsie continued on a winning streak, placing 1st in her next solo competition at Ice Extravaganza Cheer and Dance, and where she was also awarded a Grand Champion title. Elsie's dance company competed at Future Cheer, in Barcelona 2019, where she placed 1st in her solo category and 2nd in both group performances for jazz and contemporary. That same year Scruffy Mutt Dance Company was invited to attend the annual Dance Excellence Event in LA 2020, however due to Covid-19 the event has been postponed to August 2021, where Elsie and her fellow dancers from the company are hopeful it will still go ahead! Elsie also loves participating in dance photoshoots and has attended many dance conventions around the country where she has learnt new skills and met other dancers, choreographers and teachers from all over the globe!

However, this last year has been a challenging time due to the global pandemic and disappointingly so many competitions and events had to be cancelled, but that still did not stop Elsie from dancing. She has taken part in many dance classes and workshops over zoom, dancing from her own living room at home has helped Elsie maintain her skills and also learn from other dancers in the industry.

Elsie gets so much fun and enjoyment out of training and competing with her fellow dancers at Scruffy Mutt Dance Company, where she also studies Advanced Drama and is part of their Cheerleading level 3 squad. She has made so many close friendships and it is so lovely to be dancing at Scruffy Mutt Dance Company, she really feels like part of a very special dance family. Elsie's dream one day is to run her own dance company and be an inspiration to other young dancers who want to achieve their own dreams.

My name is Emma. I am 16 and have been dancing since I was 2. I am a competition dancer at Stages Dance Company. I do jazz, tap, hip-hop, lyrical, and ballet. My favorite styles are lyrical and tap although I love all styles. My favorite part about dance is being able to express myself through movement.

Emma resides in Maryland, she is 12 years old, and is in 6th grade. She is currently a competitive dancer and is a part of her middle schools' dance company. Emma has been a dancer since she could walk. She started taking recreational dance classes at Dancer's Dreams at the age of two, and has been taking classes ever since. At the age of five, Emma started as a competitive dancer with Dancer's Dreams Gems (an extension of Dancer's Dreams). She has trained in ballet, tap, jazz, lyrical, contemporary, hip hop, and acro styles of dance. She has had the pleasure of working with famous choreographers and winning numerous platinum awards, first in categories, overall high scores, and judges choice awards. She is even a teacher-helper for a mini-hip hop class at her dance studio. While she's a beautiful dancer and person inside and out, she also excels academically and always makes honor roll. Emma has dreamed about dancing professionally and she also wants to be a veterinarian and wildlife rehabilitator. She is one determined young lady who always exceeds her goals and these goals will not be an exception.

Gemma Mae is 6 1/2 year old (she will not let me forget the 1/2), sassy little dancer who has been dancing at a studio since she was 2 years old. She was inspired to dance by her two older cousins by watching them dance competitively on the big stage. Gemma immediately had mom sign her up for ballet, jazz and hip hop classes at The Urge Dance Complex and started competing with a team and dance trio at just 4 years old.

At 5 years old, the whole world shut down because of COVID-19. 2020 was a hard year for everyone. Gemma was only able to compete her trio one time and at such a young age it was hard for her to accept that she couldn't compete or go to the dance studio and everything else that came along with the quarantine. But dance continued to hold a place in her heart and she powered through her virtual classes knowing that one day she would be back in the studio.

Well that time has come and Gemma is now dancing competitively at Pave School of the Arts in Orange County, CA. Her first dance competition in over a year is in May and she is so excited to get up there and dance her heart out!

Dance friends really are the best friends and I couldn't imagine my life without them. I am attending Elite Dance Studio in Maryland, Elite has become my second home. All of the staff and dancers are treated like family and we all care about each other. For my profession I would like to be a dance studio owner/teacher. Dance truly makes me happy and I love doing it everyday.

My name is Kyla and I am a 13 year old dancer from Norfolk. I started dancing at the age of 2 and I now take classes at Ashley Dance Company where I take Acrobatics, Musical Theatre, Ballet, Tap, Jazz, Contemporary and Commercial. I also help my dance teacher with the younger kids classes which I absolutely love on a Thursday and a Saturday. Over the last few years I have competed at quite a lot of dance competitions especially online ones during lockdown this past year. I have gained places in the top 3 with my jazz solo, a duet and a tap trio. I would love to thank my amazing dance teacher Ashley for helping me a lot and giving me so much opportunities to perform over the years. In 2019 I successfully auditioned for a place in the Potters resort Christmas spectacular where I performed 11 shows across 3 months which was such an amazing thing to be able to do. In the coming years one of my goals is to be able to go en pointe in ballet and also to get my aerial in acrobatics which I am so close to. I have loved performing lots of dances in dance shows and outside performances over the years which is always so fun. I absolutely love going out on photo shoots and also filming my dances to post on my Instagram.

Hi my name is Lauren Hurley, I am 15 years old and a freestyle disco dancer from Ireland. I have been dancing since I was 10 and doing freestyle since I was 12. My favourite style to compete is slow dance as I can use my emotions on the floor. I train every chance I get both in and out of the dance studio. I compete in comps all over the Uk and Ireland. I also love getting ready for comps and doing my hair and makeup as it makes me feel confident to hit the floor. My dream is to go to dance college when I leave school but I know that I have a lot of work to do to make it happen. Covid has had a big affect on my training but hopefully soon I can go back to where I love to be and get back to competing.

Phylicia Chew

At 9 years old, Phylcia Chew Zi Ying, had always enjoyed dancing since her tender age. She started formal dance training (ballet) at 5 years old and since then Phylcia had gone on to perform on stage and had been actively taking part in many dance competitions, both local and international. Phylcia's hometown is Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

She started active competition when she was 6 years old and had won many awards to date. One of her major achievements was winning The World Champion title in her age group Classical Ballet at Get The Beat World Finals in Bangkok, Thailand in December 2019, prior to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Phylcia also took part in stage productions, Fairy Doll at Istana Budaya, Kuala Lumpur in 2019, and Nutcracker at Damansara Performing Art Centre, Petaling Jaya in 2020.

During the restrictive pandemic lockdown, etc., where travel and live performances were not allowed, and unable to train with her coach in the dance studio, she continues her training at home. She also seeks out online training with teachers from all over the world and would train at home daily with their guidance, after her online schooling.

Some of her notable international competitions in 2020 are - Youth Art Festivals, Singapore 2020, where she won Gold in Jazz/Lyrical Solo, and Silver in Classical Ballet Solo. She also won Gold in Asia Pacific International Arts Festival 2020 in Dance Category and in Asia Ballet Challenge, Hong Kong 2020, she won Bronze overall.

Phylcia also played the piano and had won Bronze in Malaysia Piano Competition 2020 (her maiden piano competition), 2nd Class Honors in Hong Kong Pacific Piano Open Competition 2020, and Silver in Bangkok International Piano Competition 2020.

Juggling between school, dance training and piano practices is not easy, but with the support and encouragement from both her parents and teachers, AND with some discipline, she perseveres on, and Phylcia wants to continue to excel in her dance and piano, both competitively and artistically. She also wants to continue to excel academically in school as well.

Like any performer, she misses the stage and performing. She hopes that the pandemic would be under control soon, so she can return to live stage performances and active competitions, both local and international.

I'm Rylie and I'm turning 10 in June.

I have always wanted to dance, and started asking to dance as soon as I could speak. I finally started taking dance classes when I was 4.

I watched a competition at the local theatre that year and I knew immediately that I belonged on the stage, so when I turned 5 I auditioned for a competitive dance team and I've been dancing competitively ever since.

I train and compete in many styles of dance, including ballet, jazz, hip hop, lyrical, musical theatre and acro.

Flexibility has always come naturally to me, but I've had to work really hard on my strength and core strength to be able to have better control of that flexibility. Hard work definitely pays off because my last solo won me not only a first place medal, but also a special judges award for my flexibility and execution!

I train 5 days a week at my dance studio and I train at home on my own time as well.

Over the years I have won numerous trophies, awards, first place, overalls and special judges awards. I've also been selected as dancer with the most potential and received a scholarship to attend the Canadian Dance Expo dance convention. I also attend conventions any chance I get, and most recently I was selected to receive a photoshoot, free private lessons from acro alliance, and free private lessons for an Urban Hip Hop class.

I've competed with solos, duets, trios, small groups and large production lines.

I plan to continue with my dance training into adulthood and hope to someday open my own dance school.

Tianna is a 9-year-old dancer from Alberta, Canada. She started off in gymnastics from the ages of 5 to 7 years old. At 7 she started jazz and Acro at Dawn's School of dance in Carstairs, AB and immediately fell in love with dance. Currently, Tianna is enrolled in lyrical, jazz, hip hop, Acro, and tap. Her favorite class is hip hop as she loves the moves and music, and she said you can really "let loose" with this style. She dreams of one day joining Cirque du Soleil. Tianna has always been so motivated and continues to be such an inspiration. If there is a move that she cannot do, she will continue trying until she gets it. In her spare time she loves creating slime, and different concoctions with ingredients found around the house. She is a sweet girl, who is kind to all her peers and family. She loves helping around the house, or finding ways to earn extra money to add to her Slurpee fund. With her talent and great personality, she can achieve anything she puts her heart into.
